Rules for this Incorporated Association

Note

The persons who from time to time are members of the Association are an incorporated association by the name given in rule 1 of these Rules.

Under section 46 of the Associations Incorporation Reform Act 2012, these Rules are taken to constitute the terms of a contract between the Association and its members.

Introduction by the General Secretary

These rules of Incorporation are based upon the Model Rules as provided by Consumer Affairs Victoria.

By its nature, the members of RASA, chiefly licensed Amateur Radio Operators, are spread widely around Australia. Its operation will be heavily reliant upon the Internet for providing information to its members and collecting their responses, as physical meetings will be impractical and infrequent.

All variations to the Model Rules within this document reflect the minimum changes required to retain the integrity of this Association while taking the greatest advantage of contemporary communications technologies.

This dynamic differs from how most local community groups and sporting clubs operate, but the principle of a democratically elected committee representing its members in a fair and transparent way remains paramount.
